Product End of Life (EOL) Notification

09/07/2025

To whom it may concern,

This letter is to inform you that, as part of a strategic review of our product portfolio, and in light of changing market demands, Bull Products Limited has taken the decision to discontinue the products listed below.

We thank you for your custom to date and apologise in advance for any inconvenience caused by the removal of these product stock keeping units (SKUs). We hope that this notification allows you time to complete existing projects and move future projects to alternatives. Please contact your Bull Products representative for advice about alternatives if required.

Please note that if EOL occurs prior to the expiration of the warranty period, we reserve the right to service this warranty with replacement parts.
